The total for five months, July to November, 1918, was £18,623,175, an increase of £7,361,475, or 65·3 per cent., in comparison with the corresponding period in 1917.

The Oversea exports during November amounted to £4,676,787, being an increase of £1,391,176, or over 42 per cent., as compared with the corresponding month of last year. On the 30th November, 1918, the Consolidated Revenue Account was in debit to the amount of £1,467,258.

Railways.—The report on Railways for the quarter ended 31st December, 1918, shows that in comparison with the corresponding quarter of last year, the earnings increased by £214,600, and the expenditure by £187,662. During the period there was an increase of 160,285 train miles run, and of 3,312,129 in the number of passengers carried. Relatively the earnings increased by 6½d., and the expenditure by 6½d. per train mile.

The total earnings of all lines of Tramways, during the quarter, amounted to £611,830, and the working expenses to £467,877, leaving a surplus of £143,953.

Banks.—The principal features disclosed in the banking averages, which include those of the Commonwealth Bank, to which the War Loans are paid, for the quarter ended 31st December, are a fair increase in deposits bearing interest, a slight reduction in cash held, with a notable increase in the advances; and in comparison with the last quarter of the previous year, the expansion was considerable under the most important headings. Compared with the fourth quarter of 1917 there was an increase of £7,832,810 in current accounts, and in the total deposits of £16,065,022. Reserves of coin and bullion decreased by £794,837 during the year, and by £401,165 during the quarter. Advances increased during the year by £19,540,517, and during the quarter by £3,527,140. The proportion of cash, bullion, and notes to total liabilities now stands at 23·94 per cent. Included in the cash held is an amount of £12,176,663 Government notes, which are now the currency of the State, as against £9,345,552 for December of the previous year.

Savings Banks.—The latest returns show that at the 30th September, 1918, there were 936,922 depositors, having £43,483,571 on deposit. This showed an increase of £444,559 in deposits during the quarter. The average amount of deposit was £46 8s. 2d. per depositor, or over £22 per head of population.

Gold Production.—The gold yield during November, 1918, was 5,763 oz. crude, equal to 5,386 oz. fine, valued at £22,878, and showed a decrease of 1,517 oz. fine, and £6,445 in value, compared with November of last year. The value of the gold produced during the eleven months was £331,385, and showed an increase of 202 oz. fine, and £858 in value in the figures for the corresponding period of last year.

Cost of Living, Sydney.—From the information collected each month (see Table 56) as to the retail prices in Sydney of food and groceries, it appears that in November, 1918, prices were 39·7 per cent. higher than in July, 1914; 1·4 per cent. higher than in November, 1917; and 2·1 per cent. higher than in the preceding month, October, 1918.

Meat, which is included in the results quoted above, shows prices in November, 1918, 66·7 per cent. higher than in July, 1914; 8·1 per cent. lower than in November, 1917; and 0·1 per cent. lower than in October, 1918.

The following is a statement of the price levels since July, 1914, the levels for which were taken as base, and called 100 :—

Except for a very slight fall in the price of pork, meat prices were the same as in October.

Potatoes, ham, cheese, and butter each advanced $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per lb., and eggs about $1\frac{1}{2}$ d. per dozen. Onions fell about $1\frac{1}{2}$ d. per lb.

Meteorology.—The exceptionally dry conditions prevalent over the State during September and October were again in evidence during the first week of November, but the advent of monsoonal influences in the remainder of the month caused some welcome rains, which were, however, chiefly limited to the north-eastern half of the State. In other parts of New South Wales, especially in the south-west area, including Riverina, the falls were very meagre. The total, on the whole, was below the average, only a few scattered stations situated on the Northern Tableland and Slopes, and in the Coastal district, being above normal. Temperatures generally ruled high, heat wave tendencies being frequent.

Vital Statistics—Sydney and Suburbs—November, 1918.—The births registered numbered 1,460, equal to 22·54 per 1,000 of population per annum; of the total, 730 were males and 730 females. The rate is 13·5 per cent. below the average of the previous five years.

The deaths numbered 612, namely, 349 males and 263 females. The mortality rate of 9·45 per 1,000 of population per annum is 9 per cent. below the average of the previous five years. The deaths were above the average in age-group 5–64, and below the average in age-groups under 1, 1–4, and 65 years and over. The above quotation as to deaths does not include the deaths at the Quarantine Station, 32 in number, for which registration had not been effected.

The infantile mortality was 78·8 per 1,000 births, and is 9·4 per cent. below the average for the month of November for the previous five years.

New Buildings—Metropolis.—According to returns supplied by the several Town Clerks, there were erected, in the Metropolitan area, during November, 374 new buildings, as compared with 407 in November, 1917.

The total for the eleven months, January to November, was 4,667, as compared with 4,616 during the corresponding period of 1917.

Land Selections.—During November, 122 applications were made for 78,945 acres under the Crown Lands Acts; and 212,719 acres, representing 200 blocks, were gazetted for residential settlement, which includes areas set apart for returned soldiers. Since the beginning of the year the number of applications has been 960, and the area applied for 724,179 acres. The original area gazetted for residential settlement since the 1st January is 925,096 acres, representing 1,056 blocks.

* Since the 25th March, 1916, the official f.o.b. price of wheat for flour for home consumption has been 4s. 10³/₄d. per bushel. This includes 3¹/₄d. handling and commission charges; but city millers, handling grain for their own mills, obtain it for 1¹/₄d. per bushel less than the f.o.b. price, so that since that date the price of wheat for flour or home consumption has been 4s. 9d. per bushel (on trucks), Sydney.
